

Growing and Sustaining Your PMO with Bill Stewart

December 14-16, 2009

Project Management Leadership University - 6 Concourse Parkway Ste 2900 - Atlanta, Georgia

Join Bill Stewart, the architect of PMO and EPMO concept for 3 days of individualized instruction and support in implementing and/or taking your PMO to the next level of planning and execution excellence. Bill is a noted thought leader in program and portfolio management and will provide you benefit of his over 20 years of experience implementing PMO's and EPMO's as assists you in creating your strategic and tactical road map to success. Attendance at this executive boardroom workshop is limited so that participants receive maximum one-on-one coaching support from Bill.

December 14, 2009 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Challenges to Moving to a Culture of Disciplined Planning and Execution • Measuring the Maturity of Your Organization • Establishing the Vision for Project Management • Establishing and Communicating a Powerful PMO Mission Statement • Developing Your Plan: Preparing the Charter and Work Breakdown Structure
December 15, 2009 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Planning: Identifying Risks and Developing Mitigation Plans • Planning: Developing the Detailed Schedule • Identifying Roles and Responsibilities • Identifying Gaps in Project Management Processes and Process Tools • Establishing Professional Development Program that Supports Consistent Execution • Identifying the Products and Services to Be Provided by the PMO
December 16, 2009 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rapidly Implementing an Effective Lessons Learned Program • Developing the Program Office Public Relations Strategy and Plan • Implementing Your Program and Portfolio Management Processes • Successfully Implementing Enterprise PPM Solutions

You will produce the following major deliverables as your create your PMO's strategic plan:

Vision for Program and Portfolio Management
PMO Mission Statement
Program Charter
Work Breakdown Structure
Detailed Schedule
Risk Plan
Communications Plan

Lessons Learned Library
Portfolio and Prioritization Process
Gap Analysis of Present PM Processes and Tools
Professional Development Program for PM's
Training Program for Project Teams
Training Program for Executives and Managers
Public Relations Plan

You may want to consider bringing key professionals from your PMO team so that you and your team can work together in preparing your roadmap to success. Register early to reserve your place in this unique workshop. Your investment in program and portfolio greatness: $1,800.

GSA rates are available. To register, contact Kristine Gibel 888-252-0808 or www.pmlg.com.

Your Instructor and Coach

Bill Stewart
Founder, President and CEO
Project Management Leadership Group, Inc. (PMLG)

A program and portfolio management thought leader, Bill Stewart has over 30 years of successful leadership experience across a wide range of initiatives. A former Infantry Officer and Army Ranger, Bill developed dynamic experiential based leadership training programs that are still in use today. In 1982 he was a program manager for President Reagan on the Grace Commission. As a management consultant for Phillips Petroleum and Ernst & Young, Bill was responsible for implementing a wide range of business solutions for Fortune 500 corporations. Bill identified the need in public and private organizations for support in the successful execution of strategic vision and was instrumental in creating the PMO and EPMO concept to address that need. Over the past 20 years he has supported the successful implementations of PMO's and EPMO's for such major organizations as Toyota, BellSouth, Delta Air Lines, Cendant Corporation, Southwestern Bell, Cingular Wireless, Blue Cross Blue Shield, Merck, Wyeth, ACE Insurance, Avis and many others.

He regularly coaches executives and PMO professionals on how to rapidly move to a culture of planning and execution excellence. He developed experiential based training and certification program, the CPM and ITCPM Boot Camp program. This is the only experiential project management training program available anywhere and has proven to rapidly mature both the project management and leadership skills of those attending. It has become a key element in ensuring the successful move by any organization to a culture of disciplined and consistent planning and execution. He also created the advanced certification program, the Program and Portfolio Management Certification® and the Enterprise Program Management Maturity Assessment (EPMMA™). Bill was responsible for forming the think tank, The International Program Office Summit which will conduct its 10th annual session in 2010. A member of PMI for over 20 years, he was on the Board of Directors for Information Systems Specific Interest Group for 7 years. Bill is on several Who's Who listings.

Bill is a highly sought after international speaker. His extensive knowledge and leadership experience in project, program and portfolio management coupled with his passion to share what he has learned, make his presentations exciting, informative and highly motivating. During 2009, Bill presented encore presentations at the PMI Global Congress in Amsterdam and again at the Global Congress in Orlando, Florida. He gave two presentations at Gartner ITXPO. Interviews with Bill have appeared in such CEO and CIO magazines, PM Networks and PMI's Leadership Edition. Bill has appeared several times on CNBC and other networks as an expert on leadership and project management. Most recently he appeared on "World Business Review" hosted by General Norman Schwarzkopf. Two books authored by Bill will be published at the beginning of 2010: "Achieve Execution Excellence!" and "The PMO and EPMO Survival Guide".